

Three triangles are drawn horizontally. The first triangle has vertices labeled B (top), A (bottom left), and F (bottom right). The second triangle has vertices labeled E (top), A (bottom left), and Z (bottom right). The third triangle has vertices labeled G (top), H (bottom left), and C (bottom right). To the right of these triangles is a circular diagram containing a complex geometric construction with multiple lines and points labeled with letters.

[illegible]